

IN SOCIETY'S REALM.

Echoes from the Wickham-Old Wedding in Powhatan Last Week.

WAS A BEAUTIFUL AFFAIR.

The Marriage Preceded by a Most Delightful Entertainment - The Matinee Musical Meeting - Art Club's Exhibition - Personal Notes.

The marriage of Colonel William F. Wickham, of Richmond, and Miss Annie Leigh Old, of Powhatan, was one of the most charmingly refined and typical old Virginia entertainments which has interested the community for a long time.

Judge T. Ashby Wickham, cousin of the groom and best man, and the ushers, Messrs. Benjamin Watkins Leigh, of Norfolk; Fenton Noland, of Hanover, and Roswell Page, Alex. Campbell, John Rutherford, and John Wallace, of Richmond, with Mrs. Robert H. Renshaw, of Clarke county, formerly Miss Annie Wickham, sister of the groom, and Miss Julia Renshaw, left Richmond for Powhatan on Tuesday, and the gentlemen stayed at "Tuxton," the delightful old homestead of the Skelton family, which has been bought by Colonel Wickham as the future home of himself and his bride.

The bridesmaids, Miss Cora Hobson, maid of honor, and Misses Sarah E. Harrison, of Amelia county; Addie H. Chaffin, of Richmond; Lily N. Weisiger, of Powhatan; Grace H. Spear, of Richmond; Rosalie Shaffer, of Powhatan, and V. Bernard Harvie, stayed at the home of the bride.

On Tuesday evening there was a charming party at the old home of Major Charles Old, the bride's father, in honor of the wedding party. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wickham, Miss Julia Taylor, of Westmoreland; Masters George and William Wickham, nephews of the groom; Dr. and Mrs. Armistead L. Wellford, Mr. and Mrs. James Harvie, and Mr. Lancaster Williams, went from Richmond by the morning train, and were driven to "Tuxton," where a delightful luncheon was served, and the party then drove to the church.

The lovely decoration of spring flowers, ferns, roses, and carnations, made the pretty church very beautiful, and the young couple stood beneath a wedding bell suspended under a beautiful floral arch.

The organ, played by Mr. Shaffer, was tuneful in the wedding march from Lohengrin, as the bridal party, with the two little boys, holding the ribbons, entered. Little Julia Renshaw, as flower girl, was attired in delicate blue organdy and lace, with a Leghorn hat, trimmed in forget-me-nots, carried a bouquet of bride's roses, and the ribbon boys wore white linen suits, and blue silk cravats.

The maid of honor wore a dainty costume of yellow organdy, and the bridesmaids pretty white organdy, with white satin ribbons, with bouquets of carnations.

The bride was handsomely attired in a tailor-made costume of gray cloth, with hat to match, and her bouquet was of lily-of-the-valley. She is a very handsome and attractive brunette, with deep and expressive eyes, and was striking central figure in the final tableau, as the bridesmaids formed a circle around her on the beautiful greenward, and she untied and tossed to them the shower bouquet. In which were concealed the ring, the bodkin, and the alpenstock, a ceremony time-honored in custom, yet ever new in interest.

The marriage ceremony was impressive, performed by Rev. C. O. Pruden, of Chatham, Va., brother-in-law of the bride. The groom is well known as a prominent member of the Virginia Bar, and a practitioner in the courts of Richmond and the counties adjacent to his own, and has been for some years a popular man in society, to which position he is justly entitled by birth and education.

The May musical festival will be a brilliant feature of interest this week. The Wednesday Club, with its magnificent chorus of 175 voices, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Scrivener, and the Baltimore Orchestra, of thirty-four pieces, with Fritz Gaul as leader, would be a brilliant musical attraction in themselves, but, added to these are the soloists, Madame Lillian Blauvelt, soprano; Mr. Mackenzie Gordon, tenor; and Mr. H. L. Chase, baritone. The programme for Thursday evening, May 14th, will open with an overture by the orchestra, which will be followed by opera selections by the solo artists, with orchestral accompaniments. Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise," chorus, soloists, and orchestra. On Friday evening there will be a varied programme, including selections from the "Messiah," "Tannhauser," and four-part songs by the club, without accompaniment.

The Wednesday Club, under its able conductor, Mr. Scrivener, has accomplished wonderful things, and the Richmond public, and it is going on to even higher and better work if sufficient encouragement is given by those who can further its interests. No winter concert, with its expenses, and the small initiation fee required of the membership is only to cover the expenses of the music score and other necessary details.

Mrs. Edward Pearce, of London, England, who has spent several months with Mrs. R. H. Whitlock, left for Old Point on Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Whitlock and Mr. Pearce, and will take place on the 20th of May, at Calvary church, Louisville. Mr. Pearce has many close friends in Richmond.

There was a very agreeable social gathering at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon, and Mrs. Henry Gibson served tea.

Invitation have been received by a number of friends to the wedding of Miss Lillian Elizabeth Morris, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. George Schlegel McAlpin, of Savannah, Ga. Mr. McAlpin resided in Richmond for a year or more, and made many friends here.

A very pleasant meeting of the Ladies' Matinee Musical was held on Friday afternoon, May 8th. The president, Mrs. S. W. Stevens, having been called away from home unexpectedly, the honors of the house were very cordially extended by Mrs. C. W. P. Brock.

The programme was of a high order of music, and was most acceptably rendered. It opened with "La Grotte de Fingal" (Mendelssohn); a duet by Mrs. Rehling and Miss Shilton; "The Flower Girl" (Berlioz); Mrs. Leigh, soloist, in "The Song of the Lark" (Stately Song) (Bischoff); Miss Erna Bass; "The Flatterer" (C. Chaminade); Miss Williams; "Soprano Song" (C. Chaminade); Miss Pearce; "Rondo Capriccioso" (Mendelssohn); Miss Swasey.

Mr. James Richardson, of New Orleans, has been the guest of Mr. C. D. Langhorne during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Currie left on Monday evening for a visit to Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. William H. Pleasant, of Bon Air, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Pleasant, of Church Hill, returned to her home a few days ago.

Mrs. J. J. Royster, east Franklin street, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Davis, of Baltimore, has returned to her home.

The Art Club opened its annual exhibition on Saturday evening at the club rooms, 227 east Franklin. A very beautiful and creditable display of work in oils, water colors, and black and white is to be seen there, and the exhibition will be open daily from the 11th (Monday) until the 19th (Saturday), from 12 to 2, and from 7 to 9. Also on Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday evenings from 8 to 10:30.

The Reception Committee for the different times will be Mrs. E. V. Valentine, Mrs. W. C. Bentley, Miss Stringfellow, Mrs. James Lyons, Miss Annie Winston, Mrs. Parker Dashiell, Misses Annie Lee and Hallie Lightfoot, Mrs. W. S. Gwatkins, Miss Lightfoot, Mrs. Mary Rogers, Mrs. Richard Meade, Mrs. Brockmeyer, and Miss Townes.

On Saturday evening there will be charming music; Miss Pace, violin obligato; Mrs. Symington, Mr. Hunter, and Mr. Scrivener.

Mrs. Bott, formerly Miss Neeson, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Mrs. Edward Smith, of west Grace street, has returned to her home in Evansville, Ind., is the guest of Miss Beulah Elchel, Brook road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lebermuth, have left for Glen Allen, to spend the summer.

Miss Clara Christian, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Cunningham, is now at Chase City, on a visit to friends and relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. Martin entertained a few friends on Monday evening, very delightfully, in honor of their guest from Norfolk.

Mr. Frank Craigie, Jr., is on a pleasure trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stearns and family leave the city on the 15th of May for their country home, in Culpeper, Va.

Miss J. Lovell, who has spent the winter in Ashland, has returned to the city.

A quiet home wedding is announced of Miss Susan LaPrade Starke to Mr. Luther Dawson, at high noon, on Thursday, May 14th.

Mrs. D. B. Tennant and the Misses Tennant have returned from a short visit to Baltimore.

LODGE OF SORROW.

Beautiful and Solemn Service of the Scottish Rites This Afternoon.

The lodge of sorrow to be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Albans Hall under the auspices of Libertas Lodge of Perfection, No. 5, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, will be an event in the history of the fraternity in Richmond. This will be the second lodge of sorrow ever held by this body.

The first was a few years ago, when Rev. Dr. Carmichael was venerable master. Rev. Dr. Fair is venerable master this year, and as such will conduct the solemn ceremonies. He will deliver a short discourse fitting the occasion. The ritual for a lodge of sorrow is singularly beautiful and impressive, having been elaborated by the late Albert Pike, for many years the Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite of Masons.

The music this afternoon will be very fine. Professor Jacob Reinhardt, of the Scottish Rite orchestra, will have a quartette choir, composed of Miss Porter, Miss Meade, Mr. Clowes, and Mr. Cardozo. These vocalists will render a number of appropriate hymns, and Captain Cunningham, himself a Scottish Rite Mason, will sing a beautiful solo.

The entire service will consume from an hour and a quarter to an hour and a half.

Secretary Crafts at the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. William F. Crafts' lecture this afternoon at the Young Men's Christian Association promises to be a most interesting event. The subject will be "Before the Lost Arts," and fifty scientific cartoons will be used by Mr. Crafts. A musical programme will be rendered during the afternoon by Mr. Stuart Hopkins, Mr. G. Burton Mountcastle, and Miss M. A. Harrison. Admission will be by ticket only.
